Huge Cedar

Photos of
The Whitney Camp
Blind Slough
Clatsop County
Oregon
taken August 1911.

Thick stand –

Rollway No 9 S.E. Cor Sec 13 8 N 7 W.

Fine specimen of Douglas Fir

Commencing to cut for the fall —

Commencing the first operation of falling —

Falling a Spruce

Falling a big Spruce tree

Undercutting preparatory to felling
the tree &
and then wedges
for the fall

Men are on this facing [illegible]

The Grant passing

A good Cypress Gulch —
Texas a Few Years Ago —

The Bucker and his tools —
Axe — Axe — Wedge — Maul
Pike Pole — Cant hook
[illegible]

Duckey & big Spruce

Chopping or chopping the [illegible]
[illegible] the log was not [illegible]

A Day's Fog

W. 19 Ford

W13 7
Ford

A Wonderful chance —
"I'll Cropper"

Chester [illegible] Whitedeer [illegible]
[illegible] his body for the [illegible]

Ready for the Signal to leave

Note the [illegible]

May for Schools

[illegible]

[illegible]

Big fish being carried from [illegible]

No 2 Battery

[illegible] Road [illegible]

206 11x14 Dodge Bridge

Mr Sadler

Burning Wood for Sunday use

Kitchen Table

Mr. Lyman Cox

A. A. Hanway

note the End hooks in log which is poised ready to be dropped into place on the bucks

Trucks loaded for the mill at [illegible] grounds

WABH
Wm. Ford

62 line in Reverse

[illegible]

Mr. [illegible]

10

Mouth of Harcourt St. Alexandria

W&S

W.15
Ford

W & C

Charles Stinchfield is the center one of the five persons standing

HOUSH ALBUM
13 [redacted] 1012—72
BLACK LEAVES
The Housh Co., Makers Boston
12,095.001